Attention Parent(s)

We are looking forward to another year of growing in faith within St. Cornelius parish community. In order to provide our children with the best opportunity for spiritual growth and religious formation, both the Office of Religious Education and the parents must work together to form a necessary partnership. Upon your child's enrollment, you are automatically a member of the Religious Education Parent Association (REPA). There are neither dues nor meetings to attend, but we do invite you to lend your time and talents to the St. Cornelius Religious Education Program. There are many areas where your help is necessary. Just a few of those areas are listed below. Please fill out the bottom portion by indicating where you might lend a hand. You may return the completed form with your registration.
